The Catalan Health and Social Care Consortium (CSC): Founded in 1983, the CSC is a regional public that originated in the municipalist movement. As a key reference in the sector, the CSC represents and defends the interests of around one hundred members and 45,000 professionals by providing protection and support to carry out their work in social services and health care. With a clear public commitment, the CSC provides services of high added value to its members and assists with definition of the model, adapting to new situations in health and social care centres and in local town councils. All of the CSC associates are public or non-profit organizations.

European Centre for Peace and Development (ECPD): The European Centre for Peace and Development (ECPD) is an organization emanating from the United Nations. It was created in 1983 from the University for Peace. Its objectives are to contribute to peace, development, and international cooperation in the transfer of knowledge by means of research and by organizing courses, postgraduate studies, and specialization seminars.

The University of Castilla-La Mancha (UCLM): The UCLM is a university institution with 2,270 lecturers and researchers, and 1,059 administrative and service staff catering to nearly 30,000 students. It is the academic institution of reference in the autonomous region of Castilla-La Mancha, after which it is named, and it is the leading entity in the generation and transmission of science, technology, innovation, culture, and solidarity. It also offers a wide range of research resources for optimization of the potential of companies through research, development, and innovation (RDI).
